SIDELIGHTS ON LAST SATURDAY'S H. S. MEET

Hats off to the high school athletes! Never in the history of the state meet were so many records broken, or such sensational times and marks established. Six records fell by the boards.

"To my knowledge Missouri's most successful High School Day," said Coach Robert I. Simpson, coach of the Tiger track team, and conceded to be the world's greatest hurdler of all time.

The meet was run off practically on schedule and there were no conflicts or arguments of any kind, due entirely to the efficient and elaborate manner in which Coach Simpson handled the details of the huge classic which included some 40 events which lasted throughout the afternoon.

The starting of Brutus Hamilton, Tiger all-around athlete, who is at present holding the American Decathlon, Septathlon and Pentathlon records and championships and late star of the Olympic Games was a noteworthy feature and drew a world of comment from the coaches who have been coming here many years and the athletes who were started at his direction. There were no breaks and in almost every case the runners got away together.

Captain Kelley, the military figure who handled the jump events also came in for a considerable share of praise for the efficient manner in which he handled his athletes and at the same time announced the results to the crowd in a booming voice.

Earl Maxwell, Tiger half miler, as Clerk of the Course handled his end of the work in Major League fashion. Undoubtedly the most prominent athlete on the field was Emerson Norton of Kansas City Manual. The dark haired, well muscled figure who placed in six events was always on the jump, being called from the pole vaulting pit to the shot put circle and then back to the high jump standards and so on. The chief announcer, Jimmie Phelan of the Missouri football coaching staff, was constantly announcing Emerson Norton as either a first, a second or a third.

It was the consensus of opinion among coaches and officials Saturday that some day the name of Norton will be chronicled in the hall of fame as one of America's greatest all-around performers. It is doubtful if there is a high school athlete in America today who can figure favorably in so many events as Norton. He is the state champion in the discus and high jump.

Coach Louis Menze of the Central High champions, brought a well balanced aggregation to the Columbia competitions and his runners, jumpers and weight men were constantly in the foreground. Hutcherson and Thomsberg received the lion's share of the honors for their institutions brought home 16 points in the sprints, making their relay team a certain winner.

Maurice Moulder, the stocky distance runner from Manual, established a new record in the 880-yard run. However, misfortune was on his trail in the 440 dash. In this race as he was climbing to the front on the first turn, he tripped with another athlete and fell, putting him out of the race. Had he been second in this race it would have meant a team victory for the Manual aggregation. We would not say that the Manual boy would have won this event, but it is a cinch that he would have been among the first three. A boy who sprints as good a 220 as he did in the relay, after breaking the state record in the half, and losing his wind by a bad fall in the 440, certainly has the stuff to carry him to the front.

Manual High of Kansas City now holds five records in the state more than any other institution.

This boy Laughlin from University City sure can run. The tall, lanky thatched lad from near St. Louis apparently did not extend himself until the last 80 yards of the race, and yet ran in 22.3-5. He is a sprinter of the Pad-dock type—not a pretty runner—but awfully fast. He carries his arms low and leans well forward, getting a powerful drive out of his big legs. He should be one of the best sprinters in America in a few years. He had a close rival for both events in Chauncey Simpson, brother of Coach Bob Simpson of the Tiger track team, who has a beautiful stride and is powerful but seems to lack the terrific finish that Laughlin has.

Missouri University track teams will be greatly strengthened when the Bosworth team has enrolled in a couple of years. Young Simpson will be at Missouri next year to work under his brother, who will undoubtedly improve his form in the three events which he features. His best event is the broad jump.

Wagy of Bosworth was a great favorite with the stands, coaches and athletes. His supreme modesty even after he had smashed two records and topped a third did not seem to affect him in the least. The tall little boy from the home of the famous hurdler broke both the long standing records in the high and low barriers. He was clocked in the high in the remarkable time of 15.45 seconds, leading the field by over 10 yards. The time was 2-5 of a second better than the old mark. He captured the low hurdles in the record breaking time of 25.3-5 seconds, hung up by Peddycoed of Kemper less than a half hour previously. Wagy hurdles off his left foot and has wonderful form, particularly when one considers that he has had but little coaching, using only what he has seen of Bob Simpson's hurdling to guide him. He skims close to every hurdle and in Saturday's two events did not touch a single bit of wood to halt his stride. In addition he showed his versatility by taking a first in the high jump. His teammate, Patton, who is a very small lad, won second place in both of the hurdle races and showed good form. He also placed in the broad jump. Chauncey Simpson, second place man in both hurdle races in his division, and gold medal entrant in the broad jump, hopes to follow in the footsteps of his brothers. Coach Robert I. Simpson will begin work on him next fall when he enters school, in the hope of making him a great hurdler. Coach Simpson wishes him to begin at the bottom and work up. He is built like his brother but is not quite so tall.

The four Bosworth stars will leave this week for Boulder, Colorado where they will compete in a Far Western Invitation High School Meet. Fellow Missourians will watch their work with the expectation of excellent results.

Peddycoed and Weldon did great work for Kemper Military Academy. Peddycoed broke the hurdle record only to have it broken a few minutes later by Wagy, the Bosworth star hurdler. It would have been a wonderful race had it been possible for these two boys to get together.

Lampkin's great vault of 11 ft. 8 1-4 inches should stand for some time. The Manualite has perfected the jackknife form and will make 12 feet consistently when he is a little older.

Surface's throw of 47 ft. 2 1-2 in. is the second best throw ever made by a high school athlete on Rollins Field.

It is interesting to note that but one time, previous to last Saturday, were there as many as six track records broken in one high school meet. This feat was accomplished in 1916 when new records were made in the 50-yard dash, the 440-yard dash, the 880-yard run, the discus throw, the shot put and the 440-yard shuttle, an event which was not on the program last Saturday. However, three of these records were again broken last Saturday, stamping this meet as the fastest of the eighteen meets held to date.

The records made in 1915 which were shattered Saturday are the 440-yard dash, the 880-yard dash, and the discus throw.

Central High School of Kansas City was the winner of the meet in Division II but had it not been for the fact that Moulder, star middle-distance man for the Manualites, fell in rounding the first turn in the 440-yard dash there might have been a different story to tell. Moulder was well up in front at the time of the accident and when he fell it caused him to drop out of the race. He was sure of a place in this event and was regarded by many as the favorite to win the race, due largely to his remarkable performance in the 880-yard dash when he stepped around the track twice in the fast time of 2 minutes and 2 seconds. The winning of this race would have added five points to the total score of the Manualites, thus giving them first place in Division II.

Some athletes naturally stand out above the others even before they have stuck their spikes in the track. Last Saturday a group of reporters were discussing the meet before the starting time when a tall, well-built athlete walked past. Without a single exception the reporters made some remark about this youngster, and their remarks were verified later when he won for his school two firsts in the dashes and a second in the broad jump. This athlete was Laughlin of University City and his number was 174. He scored a total of twelve points for his team and was also largely instrumental in the placing of his team fourth in the relay. University City finished third in the meet with a total of fifteen points.

It is not often that an athlete is the holder of a record for an hour but such was the fortune, or rather the misfortune, of Peddycoed, a stellar performer of the Kemper team. Peddycoed stepped the 220-yard low hurdles in the fast time of 25.4-5 seconds, thus lowering the former record of 26 seconds. But along came Wagy, running mate of Chauncey Simpson, in the fast time of 25.3-5 seconds, and the Kemper athlete's record was shattered.

The meet Saturday was largely a contest between individual stars rather than between well-balanced teams. Wagy and Simpson of Bosworth and Laughlin of University City were the outstanding stars of the first division. Norton of Manual scored more points for his team than all his running mates combined. The Central team was perhaps the best balanced team in the meet, several men piling up points. Weldon and Peddycoed of Kemper annexed a large percentage of their team's total in Division III.

BASIL RUDD GOES TO OMAHA Will Take Place on Editorial Staff of World-Herald.

Basil Gordon Rudd, A. B. '17, B. J. '20, University of Missouri, was in Columbia yesterday on his way to Omaha, Neb., where he has been offered a position on the Omaha World-Herald.

For the last year Rudd has been with the United Press in New York. He left there recently to assume his duties on the editorial staff of the World-Herald. Rudd is a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity, and is visiting here at the chapter house. He will probably leave for Omaha Wednesday.

SOONER TRACK MEN TO MAKE DEBUT HERE

Coach Simpson's Team Should Have Easy Time With Bennie Owen's Outfit Saturday.

PREPARE FOR K. U. MEET

Personal Rivalry Between Jayhawks and Tigers on Cinders Stronger Than Formerly.

The Missouri track team has as its next opponent Bennie Owen's Oklahoma aggregation, next Saturday afternoon. This will be the first appearance of a Sooner track team on Rollins Field. According to the showing in previous meets Ben Owen hasn't much of a track team and Simpson's men should romp through their paces in fairly easy manner.

The showing of the Missouri aggregation against the Aggies was very favorable, yet it is plain that Missouri has no real roses laid for her in the way of track championships. Aggie men who defeated Missourians are among the best in the Conference in their respective events and may be expected to place high in them at St. Louis when the Valley athletes congregate for the annual frolic.

Just at present Coach Simpson is preparing his men with the particular purpose of winning from the Jayhawks. There is a two-fold reason for this. Nebraska won handsily from the Jayhawks last Saturday at Lincoln. To compare favorably with the Huskers Simpson's men must also win out in the dual meet with Kansas. Of more import however than that is the fact that Missouri must this year as usual uphold her reputation on the cinders and win over Kansas as so many Old Gold and Black entrants have done in the past. The Tigers were barely able to nose out a victory in the dual indoor meet at Kansas. This has served as added impetus for Schladerman's men and they have no other ambition for this season than to win from the Missourians. It is doubtful if the personal rivalry between the members of the two teams has ever stood out quite so plainly as it does this season.

In the first place a bone of contention between Hamilton and Bradley has been disputed pro and con for two years and will continue to be until the two men have completed their scholastic work. When it comes to all around performance Hamilton has a distinct edge on the Kansas lion. However in a dual meet Bradley is of great value to his team.

His fast sprinting and hurdling are a great asset and in this particular he surpasses Hamilton, but it is in the broad jump and pole vault, and shot put, discus and javelin that the Missouri idol measures up ahead of his rival.

In the quarter O'Leary has for three years now been attempting to win out over Missouri quarter milers with only a fair degree of success. He will have to step mighty fast to defeat Roney and Parker, the fleet Missouri pair who broke their own records for the distance Saturday afternoon.

Maxwell, the Missouri half miler, has a dangerous opponent in Dierring. When Maxwell is right Watson of the Aggies is the only man in the Valley who can touch him. Kansas will be supreme in the 2-mile and will have a good chance for honors in the 1-mile although Bradley will run any of their athletes a close race in this distance.

Sanderfur of the Jayhawks is almost a sure man in the weight events. He is sure of first place in the shot put unless McClung who recently returned to school shows unusual form. In the discus Sanderfur will find worthy opponents in Lincoln and McClung, both of whom have thrown the plate well over 130 feet. In the javelin Knight and Maxwell threaten to give the Jayhawks more than their money's worth. Bradley is probably the best Kansas has and it's fairly certain that Hamilton can turn the trick on Bradley. Then in the jumps Hamilton will step to the fore in the pole vault and broad jump with Fuzzy Williams as his able lieutenant in the broad jump. Unless George Williams is enjoying a relapse in the high jump over his form of late spring in the indoor meet, he should capture first place in the high jump. He is also slated to cause trouble for Bradley in the high hurdles.

Missouri dopsters have been figuring for some time how they can possibly give the Tigers the edge on the meet. Unless there are some radical upsets however, it looks as though the Missourians have at least an even break with Schladerman's men. The baseball players who were at Lawrence say that the fans are "laying" for the track team. The Missourians are asking only a square deal.

Washington and Missouri will battle on the diamond Friday and Saturday of this week at St. Louis in what promises to be the crucial series of the season for both nines. In all probability the team that emerges the victor in these two clashes will win the Valley hunting. There will probably be more tense baseball in this series than in any other between two Valley teams this season. Missouri will have two more games with Kansas before the season closes, yet the team considers the Piker matches as of more relative importance than the final clashes with the Jayhawks.

The Tiger team that journeys to St. Louis will not be the same either in personnel or morale as the one that won out over Coach Bascom's men in Columbia a few weeks ago. Thirteen riotous innings of the national pastime featured that game. The baseball played in those thirteen innings will go down in the annals of Missouri athletic history as the hardest fought ever recorded. Neither team showed any marked advantage over the other and yet the Tigers face exactly the same team as played here for the Cardinal and Myrtle.

On the other hand Miller has lost the services of Murphy, conceded by many to be the brains of the Tiger machine in early season games. Murphy leaves a huge hole behind the plate. Bunker, a heavy slugger, is also gone, while Fritz in the "Ace" of the hurling staff in early season games, is not in the best of form. There is some doubt as to whether he will be able to pitch in either of the Washington games.

Thirteen games have been played to date by the Missourians and of this number eleven have been won, nine being Conference contests. The Missourians have learned a lot about baseball in their recent road invasion and will be prepared to fight the Washingtonians all the way. However, it must be admitted that on the Bascom outfit has just a little the edge. At times the Missouri hitting prowess has been sufficient to win from any nine in the Valley. Then again they have been extremely weak.

As an example, the game lost to the Aggies was the first Manhattan athletic field won this season. The hurler who held the Tigers to 3 hits had been pounded all over the lot by other Valley teams.

Joe Smith, when right, is hard to beat and there is reason to believe that John Miller will select him for one of the games against the Pikers.

MARYVILLE TELLS ATHLETES ABOUT THE SUCCESS OF "OUR BOB"

The Daily Democrat-Forum of Maryville, in a special edition issued at the time of the Northwest Missouri High School Track and Field Meet held there recently, contains an interesting account of the first appearance of Robert J. ("Bob") Simpson, world-renowned athlete and now coach of the University track team, on the Maryville track in 1913. The story follows in part:

"How a lanky, untanned lad from Bosworth made his first sensational appearance on the Maryville track back in 1913, won first place in five events and second in two others, smashed four records and single-handed won second place in the meet, is fondly recounted each year when track fans come together at the Northwest Missouri High School Track and Field Meet.

"In the intervening years, in which the name of Robert J. Simpson has become internationally famous, it has always been 'Our Bob' when the news of new successes has been flashed over the wire. As the noted hurdler toppled record after record, the old-timer has been wont casually to remark, 'Yes, I saw Bob when he made his start here in '13.'

"It matters little that the records established by the Bosworth phenom have since all been broken in later meets. No athlete ever before or since has made such a showing as that which started Simpson on the path to world fame. The raw country lad, with nothing but native ability, piled points pin points until he threatened to outdistance the well-coached team of St. Joseph Central. He made new records in the standing broad and the running broad jumps, the high jump and the hop, step and jump, won first place in the discus throw, and finished second to Niedorp of Central in the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes in record time.

"The prediction of the Democrat-Forum in telling of the track meet that year has since been more than borne out. Simpson not only made a star for the University but fulfilled the Olympic hope of the Democrat-Forum and more. For the years of his active career on the track, his name was in the mouth of every youngster in the country, and as track coach of his alma mater he is still winning victories on the tracks."
